The Spruce Print out this free template and design your own personalized greeting cards. Don't forget to print out an envelope for your card! You can save either the PDF version of this printable card template. Print out the card on cardstock or regular printer paper. Fold the card in half, and then fold it in half again, on the light gray dotted lines. Blue Mountain has been in the greeting card business for a long time and they boast beautifully designed ecards for any occasion as well as talking cards. This site offers a free no-obligation trial. Ojolie was started by a Danish artist and her husband, an IT specialist. The site features some of the most gorgeously rendered free ecards available online. Most of the cards are handpainted and others feature cool animated music. You'll find wild and wacky personalized video greetings on JibJab. You can email them as free ecards or post on social media. JibJab's free membership gives you limited use of free personalized videos and ecards. Punchbowl has an incredible selection of beautiful ecards that look like paper cards - even including matching envelopes. You can also customize your ecard with stickers, stamps, and postage. This is a great site for art lovers; a section of the Museum of Modern Art's website offers ecards depicting some of their renowned art, and it's completely free. Choose from 15 categories including painting, sculpture, photography, exhibitions, and film. With Care2 you can help make the world a better place while sending ecards. The company donates 5 percent of ad revenues to non-profit organizations that support environmental causes, such as saving the rainforest. Just by visiting their site to send your ecards, you help generate money for global environmental programs.
